

KBBA

Mid-Week Update

September 21, 2011

Two Important Words for Friday

Other than “GO LONGHORNS” there are two important words to remember for the game on Friday – Walking Tacos. We’ll be serving this Friday night delicacy where else but at the End Zone Concession stand sponsored by KBBA @ the BBQ trailer.

We have filled the 6 volunteer positions that are allowed admission passes but if you’re already at the game and would like to help, particularly breaking down after the game, please stop by and lend a hand.

Thursday Marching Rehearsal & Homecoming Parade Info

Students need to bring their show shirt and khaki shorts to wear for the parade

4:00 Rehearsal starts

6:00 Rehearsal moves inside

6:45 Change into show shirts and shorts

7:15 Step off in parade

7:30 Parade complete/ Rehearsal ends-- students may stay for the bonfire afterwards or may go home.

Chaperones

Thanks to all those who have signed up for this week. However, we still need one more chaperone for Thursday rehearsal and four more for our after-school rehearsal on Friday.